UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

-----X

ROGELIO ANDRADE

Plaintiff,

-against-

A TO Z HARDWARE INC. and ABDO ALSAIDA

Defendants.

ACTION
UNDER 29 U.S.C. § 216(b)

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff Rogelio Andrade individually and on behalf of others similarly situated (collectively the “Plaintiffs”), by and through his attorneys, Stillman Legal PC., allege upon their knowledge and belief, and as against A TO Z HARDWARE INC. (together, hereinafter “A TO Z HARDWARE INC.” or “Defendant Corporation”) Abdo Alsaida (each an “Individual Defendant”) collectively with Defendant Corporations, “Defendants”), allege as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1) Plaintiff was an employee of Defendants A TO Z HARDWARE INC. and Abdo Alsaida. Defendants own, operate or control a company located at 9510 Church Ave Brooklyn, NY 11212 under the name “A TO Z HARDWARE INC.”

2) Upon information and belief, Individual Defendant Abdo Alsaida serve as owner, manager, principle, or agent of Defendants A TO Z HARDWARE INC., and through the corporate entity operates or operated the company as a joint or unified enterprise.

3) Plaintiff was an employee of the Defendants. He received merchandise, arranged it, set prices, and took inventory to the basement.

4) Plaintiff worked for Defendants in excess of 40 hours per week, without appropriate compensation for the hours over 40 per week that he worked. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff appropriately for any hours worked over 40 hours and paid him at straight time, which is against the appropriate Labor Laws.

5) Defendants' conduct extended beyond the Plaintiff to all other similarly situated employees. At all times relevant to this complaint, Defendants maintain a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff and other employees to work in excess of forty (40) hours per week without providing the overtime compensation required by federal and state law and regulations.

6) Plaintiff now brings this action on behalf of himself, for unpaid overtime wage orders pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq. ("FLSA"), and for violations of the N. Y. Lab. Law §§ 190 et seq. and 650 et seq. (the "NYLL"), and overtime wage orders of the New York Commission of Labor codified at N.Y. COMP. CODES R. & REGS. tit. 12, § 142-2.4 (2006), including applicable liquidated damages, interest, attorneys' fees, and costs.

7) Plaintiff seeks certification of this action as an individual action on behalf of himself, individually pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

8) This Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) (FLSA), 28

U.S.C. § 1337 (interstate commerce) and 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question).

Supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff's state law claims is conferred by 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

9) Venue is proper in this District under 28 U.S.C. § 391(b) and (c) because all or a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred in this district.

10) Defendants maintain their company headquarters and offices within this district, and Defendants operate one company located in this district. Further, Plaintiff was employed by Defendants in this District.

PARTIES

Plaintiff

11) Plaintiff Rogelio Andrade ("Plaintiff Andrade") is an adult individual residing in Brooklyn, New York. Plaintiff Andrade was employed by the Defendants from on or about 2015 until September 24, 2022.

Defendants

12) Defendants own, operate, or control a hardware store located at 9510 Church Ave Brooklyn, NY 11212 under the name of A TO Z HARDWARE INC., at all times relevant to this complaint.

13) Upon information and belief, A TO Z HARDWARE INC., is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York. Upon information and belief, it maintains its principal place of business at 9510 Church Ave Brooklyn, NY 11212.

14) Upon information and belief, Defendant Abdo Alsaida is an individual engaging (or who were engaged) in business with this district during the relevant time. Defendant is sued individually in his capacity as owner, officer and/or agent of the Defendant Corporation.

Defendants Abdo Alsaida possess or possessed operational control over Defendant Corporations, an ownership interest in Defendant Corporations, or controlled significant functions of Defendant Corporations. Defendant Abdo Alsaida determined the wages and compensation of the employees of Defendants, including Plaintiff, and established the schedules of the employees, maintained employee records, and had the authority to hire and fire employees.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

Defendants Constitute Joint Employers

15) Defendants operate a company in Brooklyn, New York.

16) Defendants maintain as their principal place of business a centralized office, located at 9510 Church Ave Brooklyn, NY 11212. Individual Abdo Alsaida possesses or possessed operational control over Defendant Corporation, possess or possessed an ownership interest in Defendant Corporations, and control or controlled significant functions of Defendant Corporations.

17) Upon information and belief, Defendant Abdo Alsaida serve or served as Chairperson and/or as Chief Executive Officer of Defendant Corporation.

18) Defendants are associated and joint employers, act in the interest of each other with respect to employees, pay employees by the same method, and share control over the employees.

19) Defendants possess or possessed substantial control over the Plaintiff working conditions, and over the policies and practices with respect to the employment and compensation of the Plaintiff referred to herein.

20) Defendants jointly employed the Plaintiff, and are Plaintiff employers within the meaning of 29 U.S.C.201 et seq. and the New York Labor Law.

21) In the alternative, the Defendants constitute a single employer of the Plaintiff.

22) At all relevant times, Defendants were the Plaintiff employers within the meaning of the FLSA and New York Labor Law. Defendants had the power to hire and fire Plaintiff, control the terms and conditions of his employment and determine the rate and method of any compensation in exchange for Plaintiff services.

23) In each year from 2016 to the present, the Defendants, both separately and jointly, had gross annual volume of sales of not less than $500,000 (exclusive of excise taxes at the retail level that are separately stated).

24) In addition, upon information and belief, the Defendants and/or their enterprise were directly engaged in interstate commerce.

Plaintiff Rogelio Andrade

25) Plaintiff Andrade worked for Defendants from approximately 2015 until September 24, 2022.

26) From 2016 until August 2019, his work schedule was from 9:00 A.M until 8 P.M, Monday through Saturday or (11) eleven hours per day, (6) six days per week or (66) sixty-six hours per week.

27) From September 2019 to August 2022, his work schedule was from 10 A.M until 5 P.M, Monday through Sunday or (7) seven hours per day, (7) seven days per week or (49) forty-nine (49) hours per week.

28) From September 2020 to June 2021, his work schedule was from 11 A.M until 7 P.M, Monday through Saturday or (8) eight hours per day, (6) six days per or (48) forty-eight hours per week.

29) From July 2021 to September 24, 2022, his work schedule was from 11 A.M until 7 P.M, Monday through Sunday or (56) fifty-six hours per week, with one (1) day off every (2) two months.

30) Plaintiff Andrade was paid $12 per hour until May 2022. Defendants raised his salary to $13 per hour until the end of his tenure with Defendants. He was paid cash.

31) Plaintiff was not required to punch in or out.

32) Plaintiff Andrade regularly handled goods in interstate commerce and other items produced outside of the State of New York.

33) Plaintiff Andrade work duties required neither discretion nor independent judgment.

34) Plaintiff Andrade worked in excess of 40 hours per week without appropriate overtime compensation from the beginning and until the end of his employment with Defendants.

35) No notification, either in the form of posted notices, or other means, were ever given to Plaintiff Andrade regarding overtime and wages as required under the FLSA and NYLL.

36) Defendants did not provide Plaintiff Andrade with each payment of wages accurate statement of wages, as required by NYLL 195(3).

37) Defendants never provided Plaintiff with a written notice, in English and in Spanish (Plaintiff Andrade primary language), of his rate of pay, employer's regular payday, and such other information as required by NYLL §195(1).

Defendants' General Employment Practices

38) At all times, relevant to this complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff and all similarly situated employees to work in excess of 40 hours per week without paying them appropriate overtime compensation, as required by federal and state laws. Defendants' pay practices resulted in Plaintiff not receiving payments for all his hours worked, resulting in Plaintiff effective rate of pay falling below the required overtime wage rate.

39) Plaintiff has been victim of Defendants' common policy and practices violating his rights under the FLSA and New York Labor Law by not paying him the wages he was owed for the hours he had worked.

- a. As part of their regular business practice, Defendants intentionally, willfully, and repeatedly harmed Plaintiff by engaging in a pattern, practice, and/or policy of violating the FLSA and the NYLL.

- b. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff with statutorily required wage and hour records or statements of his pay received, in part so as to hide Defendants' violations of the wage and hour laws, and to take advantage of Plaintiff relative lack of sophistication in wage and hour laws.
- c. Upon information and belief, this was done to disguise the actual number of hours Plaintiff worked, and to avoid paying Plaintiff properly for (i) minimum wage, (ii) for overtime due.
- d. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff with any document or other statement accurately accounting for his actual hours worked and setting forth rate of overtime wage.

40) Plaintiff brings their FLSA minimum wage and overtime, and liquidated damages claims as an in pursuant to FLSA Section 16(b), 29 U.S.C. § 216(b)

41) At all relevant times, Plaintiff, has been subject to Defendants' common practices, policies, programs, procedures, protocols and plans including willfully failing and refusing to pay him the required minimum wage overtime

42) The claims of Plaintiff stated herein are similar to those of other similarly situated employees.
